

Giving a gift in memory of a loved one

Useful organisations

Losing someone you love is hard, but there are many organisations that can provide help and support. Here are the contact details for a couple which may be of use:

Cruse Bereavement Care

Cruse offers support, advice and information to children, young people and adults when someone dies.

Visit their website: cruse.org.uk, call the free helpline: 0808 808 1677, or if you're in Scotland call the Cruse Scotland helpline: 0845 600 2227

The Bereavement Register

By registering deceased family and friends with the Bereavement Register, you can remove their name and addresses from mailing lists, stopping most direct mail in as little as six weeks.

Visit: thebereavementregister.org.uk,
email: help@thebereavementregister.org.uk or phone: 020 7089 6403

About the RSPB

The RSPB is the country's largest nature conservation charity, inspiring everyone to give nature a home. Together with our partners, we protect threatened birds and wildlife so our towns, coast and countryside will teem with life once again. We also play a leading role in a worldwide partnership of nature conservation organisations.

A gift in memory to the RSPB will help us give nature a home, while continuing the memory of your loved one.

There are many ways to remember someone special, and each one is unique and important. Continuing to support the birds and nature your loved one cared about could be just one way to cherish their memory.

We've been saving nature, on reserves and the wider countryside, for over 130 years.

Giving your gift in memory of a loved one can be a source of comfort, to know that even after they're gone, the nature they loved will still have a home.

Please contact our In Memory team on 01767 669700 or email inmemory@rspb.org.uk.

There are many ways to remember someone you love with the RSPB.

Book of Remembrance

Our books of remembrance are located at the following nature reserves:

The Lodge, Bedfordshire; Loch Leven, Perth & Kinross; Minsmere, Suffolk; Titchwell Marsh, Norfolk; Pulborough Brooks, Sussex; Leighton Moss, Lancashire; Conwy, Wales; Forest Lodge, Abernethy; South Stack, Anglesey; Loch Garten, Abernethy; Ynys-hir, Powys.

We ask for a suggested donation of £250 for an inscription in one of these.

Celebration Woods

Our Celebration Woods are wonderful places to plant a tree in memory of a loved one. We'll do all we can to make planting day as special and personal as possible. To find out more, go to rspb.org.uk/plant-a-celebration-tree.

Dove Stone - Peak District National Park

Dove Stone's Celebration Wood is on the edge of a reservoir, with stunning views across the valley. This is the perfect spot to sit and remember a loved one. For more information, contact Celebration Wood Officer Claire Johnson on 07395 852252 or 01457 819880, or email claire.johnson@rspb.org.uk

Haweswater - Lake District National Park

Haweswater's Celebration Wood lies adjacent to the ancient woodland of Naddle Forest. This wild corner of the eastern Lake District World Heritage Site is a beautiful, peaceful place for quiet reflection. For more information, contact Celebration Wood Officer Bea Normington on 07719 078962 or email bea.normington@rspb.org.uk

On our reserves

Some of our nature reserves offer further memorial options so you can remember your loved ones at their favourite places.

See rspb.org.uk/reserves for contact details of each reserve.

Memorial sculptures

You can place plaques at one of our memorial sculptures for a suggested donation of £300.

Tree of Life memorial owl

The Tree of Life memorial owl sits in a peaceful area of natural woodland at The Lodge nature reserve at our UK Headquarters, Bedfordshire.

Otter memorial sculpture

Situated at Ham Wall nature reserve in Somerset is a beautiful sculpture of an otter swimming gracefully through waterweed.

If you would like to find out more about placing a plaque at one of these sites, please get in touch.

Let's keep in touch – on your terms

Thank you for caring about nature. We're determined to do all we can to save it. You're a very important part of that which is why we'd love to let you know about the conservation, campaigning, research and fundraising work that we're doing.

If you're happy for the RSPB and RSPB Shop to keep in touch, please let us know how you would like to hear from us:

	Yes	No
post	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
phone	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
email	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
text	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

You're in control. If you'd like to change your choices at a later date, all you have to do is call us on 01767 693680 or go to rspb.org.uk/preferences. If you decide to stay in touch, we'll also keep you up to date with news about membership, products, offers and competitions.

Your details will be kept safe and secure, only used by us, or those who work for us, and will not be shared with anyone else. We analyse information you provide, and about how you've helped us, to decide what communications will be of interest to you (and so that we can save our resources for conservation work) and to help us understand our supporters. We also use this information to run our charity's operations, e.g. if you place an order or make a donation, we'll need your details to process those.

If you would like to know more or understand your data protection rights, please take a look at rspb.org.uk/privacypolicy.
